My family

Hi! My name's Lucy. I'm 14 and I'm from Gloucester in England. There's a nice cathedral there and the small city is a popular place for tourists.

My family's got a large house. It's near the centre of the city and there's a park behind the house. I live with my dad, and my two sisters. My dad's really nice.

He's a doctor and he works in a hospital near our house. My younger sister, Clare, is 11 and my older sister, Teresa, is 15. They're really cool and funny and they're very popular at school.

I'm in year ten at my school, Grey's Academy. It's a very good school and there are very talented students in my year group. My best friend is called Julia. Our desks are in the corner of the classroom next to the window. Julia's a really good friend and we're always together. She has wavy blonde hair, big, green eyes and she's very pretty – some of the boys in our class are in love with her.

I'm a normal teenager. My hobby is music and One Direction are my favourite band. I've got all their songs and about 20 of their posters on my wall. I think Louis is very cute – his blue eyes are gorgeous. It's my birthday next week, on Sunday 27th September, and I've got two tickets for their concert on 1st October! It's awesome!

Leggi il testo su un concorrente in un talent show televisivo. Le informazioni (1–10) sono vere (A), false (B) o non sono menzionate (C)?

A new star?

Do you know the band One Direction, or the singer Leona Lewis? They are both famous because of the popular TV talent competition X Factor. The world's crazy about these competitions and many people sing or dance in them every year.

One teenager in this year's competition is Germaine Johnson. He's 16 and he comes from Catford, in south-east London. Germaine looks like a pop star – he's good looking. He's got dark skin and big, brown eyes. But Germaine doesn't sing pop songs. 'I'm only really passionate about one thing – singing opera', he says.

'I'm in my final year at school and I've got a lot of homework, but I practise every day.' Germaine wakes up at 6 o'clock every morning and he does his homework. His school day then starts at 9 a.m. He sometimes practises his singing in the break. His friends at school say: 'We never listen to music at school, because Germaine sings for us!' School finishes at 3.30, but Germaine doesn't always go home. He stays in the school library twice a week and prepares for a private music lesson. 'I learn the words in the operas. They are usually in Italian, so it's not easy. I can't speak the language, but I memorise the words and then my teacher explains them to me.' At 5 o'clock he goes to his lesson in a music school and he gets home at about 8 p.m.

It's a difficult life, but Germaine says he's a normal teenager. 'I don't have a lot of free time. But I like going out with my friends at the weekend and we usually go to the cinema on Saturday evening.' And what do Germaine's parents think about his talent? 'He's fantastic,' his mother says. 'He's a normal boy but when he opens his mouth, he's like Pavarotti! We're very excited about the competition.'

1 Read the text about Liam and tick (✓) the best title, a, b or c.

- a Entertaining London
b My week
c Working in London

Hi, my name's Liam. I'm 20 and I'm a Drama student in London. From Monday to Friday, I've got short, brown hair and I usually wear jeans and T-shirts. But at the weekend, I'm a street entertainer. When I work, I don't look like a normal person. I wear an old grey suit, I've got black hair, and I also paint my face and body black and white.

I work in Covent Garden, in the centre of London. It's a good place to perform. There are lots of people shopping and thousands of tourists. People like watching street entertainers, so I can sometimes make a lot of money. But people don't always put money in my hat. I'm not the only entertainer in Covent Garden and there's lots of competition between us.

How do I entertain people? It changes because I can do lots of different things. I can juggle, sing, play the guitar, do gymnastics and tell funny stories. I can juggle really well, so I often do that. People stop and watch jugglers – then I tell a funny story and they stay and watch. The funny stories are very important. People always like laughing. I also like singing and playing the guitar. But I can't play the guitar very well, so I only do one or two songs.

It's a long day. I usually start work at 9 o'clock in the morning and I finish at about 7 p.m. I travel home on the underground. Some people look at me because my clothes are unusual. I just say 'Hello' to them. Then they usually smile or laugh. I like making people happy.
